

The Future of Foreign Language Education in a Global World: Exploring Motivation and Autonomy

Programme

MC: Saeko Ogiso (University of Toyama)

13:00-13:15 Opening remarks

Shunro Endo (President, University of Toyama)

Fukiko Ichida (Advisor to the President, Office for Gender Equality, University of Toyama)

13:20-14:35 Keynote Speech [This session will be held in English]

Teachers as motivators? Understanding motivation and autonomy in the language classroom

Speaker: Ema Ushioda (University of Warwick, UK)

Moderator: Yuzo Kimura (University of Toyama)

Ema Ushioda
(University of Warwick, UK)

14:40-15:40 Invited Speech 1 [This session will be held in English]

Motivational goal-setting: How to use the many resources contained within the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages

Speaker: Lorna Carson (Trinity College Dublin, Ireland)

Moderator: Theron Muller (University of Toyama)

Lorna Carson
(Trinity College Dublin, Ireland)

15:40-15:50 Break

15:50-16:50 Invited Speech 2 [This session will be held in Japanese]

Target language use for motivating language learners

Speaker: Yoshiyuki Nakata (Doshisha University, Japan)

Moderator: Hiroyuki Okazaki (University of Toyama)

Yoshiyuki Nakata
(Doshisha University, Japan)

16:55-17:55 Invited Speech 3 [This session will be held in English]

L2 teacher development and students' L2 learning motivation

Speaker: Luxin Yang (Beijing Foreign Studies University, China)

Moderator: Theron Muller (University of Toyama)

Luxin Yang
(Beijing Foreign Studies University, China)

18:00-18:30 General Discussion [This session will be held in English and Japanese]

Panelists: Ema Ushioda (University of Warwick, UK)

Lorna Carson (Trinity College Dublin, Ireland)

Yoshiyuki Nakata (Doshisha University, Japan)

Luxin Yang (Beijing Foreign Studies University, China)

Moderator: Yuzo Kimura (University of Toyama)

18:35-18:45 Closing remarks

Takashi Kondo (Advisor to the President, CIER Director, University of Toyama)

Sunday 19 February, 2017
13:00-18:45 (Registration begins at 12:30)

Room C11, General Education Building C
Gofuku Campus, University of Toyama

Special Seminar

The future of English language motivation in a global world

Speaker: Ema Ushioda (University of Warwick, UK)

Moderator: Yuzo Kimura (University of Toyama)

Date: Sunday 19 February, 2017

Time: 10:00-11:40 (Registration begins at 9:30)

Venue: Room A22, General Education Building A
Gofuku Campus, University of Toyama

* No attendance fee is required.

* This seminar will be held in English.

* This seminar is for those who have knowledge of second language learning motivation research.

* Further information is available at <http://www.ier.u-toyama.ac.jp>

Book your place in advance:

Email motivate@ctg.u-toyama.ac.jp

In the email message, please include your ① name, ② occupation (affiliation) and ③ email address, and ④ indicate if you would like to register for the special seminar in the morning.

Registration deadline: Friday 10 February, 2017

On-site registration is possible, but pre-registration is highly recommended as the number of participants is limited.

For further information, see: <http://www.ier.u-toyama.ac.jp>

Organiser: Center for International Education and Research (CIER)
University of Toyama

3190 Gofuku, Toyama-shi, Toyama 930-8555 Tel & Fax: 076-445-6106
Organising Committee Chair: Saeko Ogiso motivate@ctg.u-toyama.ac.jp

Under the auspices of: Toyama Prefectural Board of Education
Toyama Municipal Board of Education

Free to attend